

CHATHAM & CLARENDON GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Public Sector Equality Duty

Agreed by Governors: 4 February 2025

Public Sector Equality Duty - Equality Information and Objectives Statement

Opening statement

We welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010. The school's general duties with regard to equality are:

- Eliminating discrimination.
- Fostering good relationships.
- Advancing equality of opportunity.

We will not discriminate against, harass or victimise any staff member, student, prospective student, or other member of the school community because of their:

- Sex.
- Age.
- Race.
- Disability.
- Religion or belief.
- Sexual orientation.
- Gender reassignment.
- Pregnancy or maternity.
- Marriage and civil partnership.

We aim to promote students' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, with special emphasis on promoting equality and diversity and eradicating prejudicial incidents for students and staff. Our school is committed to not only eliminating discrimination, but also increasing understanding and appreciation for diversity.

Aims to eradicate discrimination

Our ethos is to provide a fair and equitable teaching and learning environment so that all students may have the opportunity to succeed in their learning.

Our school aims to limit and abolish prejudicial incidents. We will strive to create a prejudice-free environment.

We will monitor and evaluate data relating to incidents of discrimination and how this data will be broken down by the different protected characteristics to inform us of what training staff will need to support students further (this is carried out through our extensive PSHE Curriculum).

We believe that a greater level of success from students and staff can be achieved by realising the uniqueness of individuals. Creating an inclusive environment where individuals feel confident and at ease is a commitment of the school.

This environment will be achieved by:

- Being respectful.
- Always treating all members of the school community fairly.
- Developing an understanding of diversity and inclusion and the benefits it can have.
- Adopting an inclusive attitude and ensuring that the whole school community understands what inclusive behaviour looks like in the school and how this aligns with the school's values.
- Adopting an inclusive curriculum that is accessible to all.
- Encouraging compassion and open-mindedness.
- Challenging bias in order to move the conversation forward.

We are committed to having a balanced, diverse and fair curriculum. We believe that our students should be exposed to ideas and concepts that may challenge their understanding, to help ensure that students learn to become more accepting and inclusive of others. Challenging and controversial concepts will be delivered in a way that prevents discrimination and promotes inclusive attitudes.

Dealing with prejudice and celebrating diversity

We do not tolerate any form of prejudice-related incident. Whether direct or indirect, we treat discrimination against all members of our school with the utmost severity.

When an incident is reported, our school is devoted to ensuring appropriate action is taken and a resolution is put into place which is both fair and firm.

Our students are taught to be:

- Understanding of others.
- Celebratory of diversity.
- Eager to reach their full potential.
- Inclusive.
- Aware of what constitutes discriminatory behaviour.

The school's employees will not:

- Discriminate against any member of the school community.
- Treat other members of the school community unfairly.

The school's employees will:

- Promote diversity and equality.
- Encourage and adopt an inclusive attitude.
- Lead by example.
- Seek training if they need to improve their knowledge in a particular area.

Throughout the year, the school provides a variety of opportunities to celebrate diversity, including:

- Planning activities for key diversity awareness days.
- Inviting guest speakers to talk to students about diversity.
- Incorporating lessons about diversity into the curriculum.

Summary of Objectives

For 2024/2025 our Equality Objectives are:

- 1) To continue to provide a school environment that welcomes, protects and respects diverse people.
- 2) To continue to close the gaps in attainment and achievement between all groups of students.
- 3) To ensure that all students are given the opportunity to make a positive contribution to the life of the school, particularly focusing on developing leadership opportunities for all.
- 4) To ensure that all students understand that there is no place for the use of homophobic, sexist, racist and other discriminative language by students in the school.
- 5) To review the accessibility arrangements across the school for students, staff and visitors to enable them to take part in all areas of school life.

These objectives to be reviewed by January 2026.
