

CHATHAM & CLARENDON GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Zero Tolerance Policy Statement

Chatham & Clarendon Grammar School will not tolerate any form of violence or aggression. This includes verbal abuse against any staff member, governor, volunteer, contractor, or visitor whilst on school premises or whilst undertaking school work in the community . Decisive and robust actions will be taken against people who act in an abusive or violent way.

Everyone has a duty to behave in an acceptable and appropriate manner, and all those mentioned above have a right to work, free from fear of assault and abuse in an environment that is properly secure and safe.